ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

This matter comes before the Court after review of the docket and pursuant to NECivR 41.2, which provides, “At any time, after appropriate notice, a case not being prosecuted with reasonable diligence may be dismissed for lack of prosecution.” Plaintiff commenced this action on October 1, 2024. (Filing No. 1). On October 14, 2024, Plaintiff filed proof of service purporting to show Defendant, JS Helwig & Sons Holdings, LLC, was served through its registered agent on October 11, 2024. (Filing No. 8). On October 18, 2024, Plaintiff filed proof of service purporting to show Defendant, James William Reinhardt, was served on October 15, 2024. (Filing No. 9). To date, neither defendant has filed any responsive pleading or otherwise appeared in this case, and Plaintiff has taken no further action. Plaintiff has a duty to prosecute the case and may, for example, seek default in accordance with the applicable rules, voluntarily dismiss this action, or take other action as appropriate. Under the circumstances, Plaintiff must make a showing of good cause for failure to prosecute, or the action will be dismissed for lack of prosecution. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED: On or before December 12, 2024, Plaintiff must show cause why this case should not be dismissed for failure to prosecute, or take some other appropriate action.

Dated this 21st day of November, 2024.
